STARS

-- ¡Fiesta Los Alamos! Saturday, August 26th, our satellite members in STARS will present ¡Fiesta Los Alamos! at Fuller Lodge from 5:00 - 9:00 p.m. -- There will be a buffet of Mexican food catered by Blue Window Bistro, folklórico dancers, mariachis, games, live and silent auctions--all to benefit the Rotary projects STARS has initiated in Juarez, as well as locally, such as transportation costs for 4th-graders to attend public school swimming lessons. -- Everyone is welcome! Tickets are $40 in advance; $50 at the door; children 13-17 are ½ price ($20 or $25); 12 and under are free. -- Tickets can be purchased online at www.FiestaLA.eventbrite.com, at the Blue Window or at Zia Credit Union. Pres. Laura also has tickets at the meetings. -- More information is available from Fiesta coordinator Dawn Voss: 500-7691, dawnctvoss@gmail.com. -- Donations for the auctions and prizes $20 and under (including bottles of wine) for the "Tombola" are appreciated!

-- A Rotary Make-Up Meeting in Amsterdam!: Judy Goldie writes, "Tony knows the manager and staff and we were treated so graciously. With Tony is Karine, didn't get her last name, who Tony had mentored for her bachelor's and master's degrees. With me is

"Rotary Andy" ROGER.

I had not heard Tony speak much Chinese, so it was interesting and fun to listen to him converse. Karine speaks Cantonese. Tony speaks both Cantonese and Mandarin. Very lyrical to listen to. Great fun was had by all! -- We would never have found old Chinatown (or new) and certainly not experienced such a wonderful dinner if it had not been for Tony. -- Tony may know someone on every continent! -- Off to a savory Dutch pancake lunch then more organized touring before we get onboard our ship tomorrow (Friday) [August 11]."

-- New Speaker Gifts (and you can get your own, too!): A special thank you to Chuck Tallman for allowing us to use his beautiful photos for our boxes of Rotary notecards, which we've given as speakers' gifts for six years. In addition to her thanks, President Laura writes, "However in keeping with one of RI President Ian Riseley's themes for this year, Environmental Sustainability, we will begin giving out these bright, sunny Rotary bags to our speakers. As everyone knows, bringing reusable bags to the grocery store is something small we can all do for the environment! If you would like your own

-- RYLA 2017 or How 120 Girls Fed 252,000 New Mexicans in 2 Hours: Alison Pannell, with support from the District 5520 Grants Committee and the District Girls RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Award) Committee, wanted the girls attending RYLA to undertake a more significant service project than in years past. While attending this year's Rotary International Convention in Atlanta in June, Alison learned of a program using volunteers to help prepare meals on a very large scale. With the help of a $4800 District grant, matching funding from Rotary International, and a generous donation from Chuck Tallman, she brought this unique opportunity to RYLA this year. The food was given to the Roadrunner Food Bank in Albuquerque for distribution across New Mexico.

A Force to Be Reckoned With

At this week's program we will hear from Jean Gindreau and Michael Erickson about our satellite's projects in Juarez, Mexico. I imagine a number of the STARS members will be in attendance, and I encourage members of the Tuesday group and the Wednesday STARS group to introduce themselves to someone they might not know and perhaps sit together at the meeting.

It seems to me that in every issue of the Rotarian Magazine, there are one or more references to how Rotary Clubs around the world need to change and evolve. A huge part of that is being flexible with attendance, meeting format, etc. to attract new types of members. I'm really proud of how our club has done this by embracing its satellite, which is going on 5 years this fall. It's my personal feeling that the two groups can learn a lot from one another, and working together we will make for a club that is a force to be reckoned with!

So as we gather at the United Church on Tuesday, please introduce yourself to someone you might not know (or would like to get to know better), and ask them to join you for lunch. I will do the same.

In Rotary service,
Laura Loy
Club President, 2017-18
